

Thermoplastic polyurethane containing polymer polyols

Abstract

- 5 The invention relates to thermoplastic polyurethanes, obtainable by reacting polyisocyanates with chain extenders and polymer polyols, wherein the polymer polyol is prepared by using a difunctional polyether polyol having exclusively primary OH groups and a molecular weight of from 500 to 2000 as a carrier polyol.